COUNTER INTELLIGENCE CORPS MONTHLY INFORMATION REPORT # 7

4. Northwest Young Men's Association Members Trained by Metropolitan Police for Duty in Areas disturbed by Riots: Approximately six hundred (600) able-bodied volunteers of the Northwest Young Men's Association have been trained by the Metropolitan Police and dispatched to such riot areas as Yosu and Chejudo. The training period lasted approximately twelve (12) days. All members are equipped with police uniforms and are on regular police status. Present plans call for each member to complete a one month tour of duty in riot areas and then return to Seoul. As each group returns, replacements will be sent from Seoul. According to Lee Song Kyum, Chief of General Affairs Section of the Northwest Young Men's Association, the majority of the volunteers are satisfied with their assignments, although a few are not in full accord with some of the methods presently used by the police.
